Notes

- Wukong's research requires 11 Nitain Extract. This will require 45 worth of Nightwave offerings. Furthermore, crafting Wukong requires 6 Nitain Extract for an additional 30.
 - Although Reactor Sabotage caches have a chance to reward Nitain Extracts (and thus, cut down on costs), it should not be wholly relied on due to the low chance of Nitain being rewarded.

Trivia

- Wukong descended on September 29th, 2015 for the Chinese build, then on November 25th, 2015 for the global build.

- Wukong has never had official alternate look (skin), except from TennoGen, until the release of Wukong Prime.
- When Equipped with Wisp's Agile animation, and unarmed, he will summon his Celestial Twin. He is the 2nd of three frames to feature a unique version of the animation, Equinox and Xaku being the only other frames respectively.
- Wukong can give himself a handshake by activating the Handshake emote while his Celestial Twin is close by.
