—General Sargas Ruk

General Sargas Ruk is the Grineer boss of the Saturn system. The head of one of the Grineer Artifact extraction projects, Sargas Ruk was targeted by the Lotus for annexing Tenno-controlled dig sites. Ruk enjoys Grineer augmentation, even going as far as replacing the lower part of his right arm with a massive flamethrower and his normal vision with a single augmentation in the center of his helmet.

Ruk is fought in the mission Tethys.

controlled dig sites in the region in search of Orokin artifacts.

Though he is claimed to have an extremely xenophobic behavior, he has shown a strong sense of honor.

This was seen during The Gradivus Dilemma, as he occasionally remarked his admiration (albeit in a condescending tone) for the Tenno supporting the Grineer. When other Tenno supported the Corpus, he made remarks about Alad V's treacherous nature and about the Tenno being willing to sacrifice their own kind to Alad's experiments. This respect for honor carried over to his assassination mission, as he labels his would-be assassins "mercenaries fighting for scraps". He also shows contempt for The Grustrag Three.

Ruk shows considerable difficulty in conversing properly, speaking in a forceful, fragmented manner, and often mangling his figures of speech (most infamously, his "greedy milk" declaration). It is unknown if this is the result of genetic deterioration or just general difficulty with language.

The Grustrag Three

Shik Tal's codex entry reveals that Ruk was against the release of The Grustrag Three, reminding Vay Hek that the Three's violent actions before their incarceration had cost Ruk some of his soldiers and that they should have been executed for their treachery. He also warned Hek that their worsening insanity and unpredictability would be the death of him.

Rathuum

General Sargas Ruk once had a medical officer under his command named Dok Thul. As the medic failed to save the life of one of the general's favored officers, Dok Thul was "reassigned" to service under Kela as an Executioner of Rathuum, presumably as a punishment.

The Gradivus Dilemma

Upon hearing the news that Alad V had discovered a cache of dormant Tenno near edna, Sargas ordered Alad to hand over the cache to the Grineer, on the grounds that the Tenno were found in their territory. Alad refused and set up defense forces on Mars.

When the Lotus received the news, she refused to sway the Tenno to either side and instead left them with two options: side with Sargas Ruk to rescue their fellow Tenno (at the cost of the Grineer getting more territory), or side with Alad V to drive out the Grineer (letting the dormant Tenno fall victim to the Zanuka Project). After several offensives, Alad lost financial support from the Board of Directors, forcing him to pull out of Mars and give the Grineer victory.

The Pacifism Defect

When an allied convoy of ships is overrun by the Infestation, the Tenno are dispatched to rescue the surviving crew members. The crew consisted of Kavor Defectors, Grineer soldiers that could no longer bring themselves to kill for either Ruk or Steel Meridian, and would prefer to live out their lives in peace. As the Tenno evacuate the survivors, Ruk declares his disdain for the Defectors and, while he is initially content with leaving them to their fate, he ultimately sends out Manics to kill them as the Tenno redouble their efforts. Though some of them are lost, the Tenno manage to rescue the majority of the crew members, though smaller-scale evacuations (and thus Ruk's attempts to sabotage them) continue.

The Pyrus Project

With the help of the Tenno, Steel Meridian decides to rebuild a Relay that was destroyed during Operation: Eyes of Blight (the Strata Relay in the PC, XB1, and NSW builds, or the Larunda Relay in the PS4 build). When Ruk hears of this, he initially threatens the Tenno into abandoning their tasks, but when the Relay is nearly complete, Ruk leads his troops to besiege the Relay, and the Tenno are called upon once more to defeat him.

Throughout the event, particularly during the siege of the rebuilt Relay, it is revealed that Cressa Tal, the founder of Steel Meridian, once served in a powerful position under Sargas Ruk's command. Ruk evidently still nurses a particularly strong grudge for Tal's betrayal, as he was willing to release The Grustrag Three to interfere with the reconstruction effort even in spite of his disdain for them.

Scarlet Spear

Angered by the presence of Sentient and Tenno alike when the former launches an invasion on the Origin System, Ruk sieges his troops on both factions. In spite of the Tenno working to benefit the Grineer by repelling the invasion, Ruk blames them for the General Sargas Ruk has undergone extensive cybernetic modification compared to most Grineer; apart from his armor (which has three different heat exhausts mounted on his left shoulder, his chest, and his back), both his legs and his right arm have been replaced with cybernetic equivalents, while his right arm has been replaced altogether with a hybrid flamethrower/napalm cannon. His normal vision was replaced with a single augmentation in the center of his helmet as well.

Behavior

- Flamethrower: Ruk spews fire from his arm cannon, dealing Heat damage.
- Blast Grenade: Launches a grenade that explodes, dealing high Blast damage.
- Fire Blast: Akin to Ember's Fire Blast, Ruk slams the ground to create a ring of fire that knocks back any surrounding Tenno. Used when his health reaches below 66%.
- Eruption: Ruk slams the ground, erupting five large pillars of fire that linger for a few seconds, dealing high Heat damage. Used when his health reaches below 33%.

Strategy

General Sargas Ruk's armor is impervious to all damage except for blue exhaust spots that periodically open during his attacks. He has three exhausts that only open in a set order, each representing a third of his health bar.

The first exhaust is mounted on his left shoulder. Once destroyed, he will start using Fire Blast and the second exhaust will open at his chest. After the chest generator is gone, he begins to use Eruption and the third and final exhaust opens on his back.

The Tenno only need to wait for Ruk to expose his weak spots, while carefully avoiding attacks from Ruk and his reinforcing Grineer soldiers.

- Frost's Freeze, Harrow's Condemn, Garuda's Blood Altar and Trinity's Well of Life, Energy Vampire and Link abilities have no effect.
- Radial area damages like explosions are effective (Exodia: Contagion projectile, Penta, Castanas, Zakti), but precise or/and high damage weapons are more recommended.
- The boss is immune to weapons with aura damage like Zenistar disc.

Trivia

- Sargas Ruk is voiced by [DE]Skree, who also voices Captain Vor, Shik Tal, and Alad V.
- Sargas Ruk is the third boss to receive a complete overhaul, after Captain Vor and Lieutenant Lech Kril.
- Before Update 9.0 (2013-07-13), Sargas Ruk was generally the second Grineer boss that players would encounter, after Captain Vor.
- Before Update 11.0 (2013-11-20), Ruk wielded a Gorgon and resembled a Bombard.
- As of Update 8.0 (2013-05-23), Ruk has been moved from the Asteroid Base to the Galleon. Even so, Ruk's background as an artifact hunter made his previous location appropriate.
- He created a forum account on the Warframe forums to argue with Alad V: SargasRuk \(https://forums.warframe.com/index.php?/user/482822-sargasruk/\)
- General Sargas Ruk's first name, Sargas, is also the name of a star situated at the "tail" of the constellation of Scorpius.
 - His ability to cast flames made the reference much more related.
- His last name might be a reference to the android Ruk in the 7th episode of Star Trek: The Original Series. Much like Sargas Ruk with his body modifications, Ruk sees himself as not only superior to humans, but also to man-made androids.
- The community's term for "Greedy Milk" as an insulting name-call towards the Corpus was coined by Sargas Ruk, which was a part of Ruk's quotes during the Gravidus Dilemma.
- Sargas Ruk's design bears a striking resemblance to the Mauler units from Digital Extreme's previous game, Dark Sector.

- Fixed Sargas Ruk not taking damage from single target weapons (only AOE weapons could damage the weak spots).
- In Hotfix 32.2.5 we had made some temporary fixes to prevent the complete inability to defeat these bosses due to the above issue. The above fix reverts the tweaks that were made to how Bosses operate so that they could be defeated over the holiday break. The following issues from these tweaks are now also fixed:*
 - Fixed Secondary mechanics that rely on hitting things are not always triggering
