A Comprehensive Guide to getting 4000+ Endo in Less than 60 Seconds

Tool/Guide

Want to farm 100,000 Endo in just an hour?

Well, you've come to the right place; we've put together a comprehensive Rathuum (Arena) Endo Farming Guide. We made this guide because a lot of the Endo farming methods we've seen on Youtube, Reddit, and Discord have been much less efficient compared to what we have been doing.

The guide can be found here at The Ultimate Endo Farm Guide

Some of you may remember u/uuuuuuuummmmmmm's Three (and a Half) Years of Profit-Taker from a few months back. This guide was made by some of those Authors.

There are a number of okay farms, but they won't really come anywhere close to mod drop boosted rathuum.

Speedrunning zariman T4/5 exterminate bounties with a fast objective was the best I could manage/stomach, averaging at around 20-25k per hour if I'm remembering it correctly. I think it required under 2 minute total times per mission (including loading and accepting bounty). It could be kind of intense in terms of concentration to maintain pace.

Further aoe nerfs and the possible(?) upcoming self-damage will fully erase the viability of the loadout I used though, being Gauss+Zarr, but for now it should still be manageable with the ammo efficiency helminth ability.

For a second I though a new Endo farm was discovered but then I saw that is just the arena farm that has been covered hundred of times already.

Why do we call them Endo-01 and Endo-02? Shouldn't it be the other way around? Since Endo-02 was created first, it should technically be Endo-01 right?
