Titania's pocket buff, and instant revive cat (Duplex, Tenacious, and Reinforced Bond)

This build is for [Titania] while in Razorwing

When [Titania] is in Razorwing, all of her companions are "put away" like they are while in Archwing. They are invulnerable, and cannot attack or use abilities. Because of this, the only use [Titania] gets out of a pet is while grounded. If [Titania] takes lethal damage and is knocked down in bleedout, Vascat Kavat will revive her instantly with [Transfusion].

With the new Bond mods, [Titania] can benefit from [Duplex Bond], [Tenacious Bond], and [Reinforced Bond], even when [Vasca Kavat] is 'put away'. This will give her some added fire rate and crit damage.

You will need to reload your gun a few times before going into Razorwing to get the Kavat up to 1200 shields.

If your Kavat were to get downed, it will [Recover] while you are in Razorwing. It will stop at 100% until you leave Razorwing. You won't get the Bond mod bonuses, but the Kavat will revive instantly if you are downed, and pick you up off the ground right away while it has temporary invulnerability from it being revived.
