Nothing fancy but gets the job done and then some. With its electrified armor, this rough and ready mech can make the battlefield treacherous for the enemy with an arsenal of explosives.

The Last Living Bastion

Hello there,

Updated! V3.0

Changes here are mostly because of some new mods and Orphix Venom Event but if DE won't add new mods, this build is kinda "final".

DE listened to the screams and cries of its community for once and made Necramech finally able to fill all slots with maxed out mods without having to polarize every slot. Finally we can have "normal" Necramech.

Here's my idea for [\[Voidrig\]](#) Necramech build. Hope you guys like it. I tried to make him as strong as possible.

Quick look at Voidrig skills:

- Necraweb is a canister that you can throw to slow enemies - rather useless ability
- Storm Shroud is his electrical field, very good ability, you should have it active all the time
- Gravemines is a skill that throw many charged mines - grenades like - that detonates when touched or after few seconds - it's OK ability but nothing big
- Guard Mode is a serious tool of destruction, it change your Necramech in stationary turret with enormous firepower - very powerful range weapon but has fallout so keep that in mind when aiming

Melee attack is not the same as exalted melee. Melee means... his bare "hand" and this is seriously shitty melee. It

After some recent updates we now got some new useful mods I putted here, those are [\[Necramech Repair\]](#) (help you stay "alive" when shit hit the fan) and [\[Necramech Rage\]](#) (this one help you maintain energy pool). And thanks to the second new mod we got one very flexible mod here now... it's Necramech Flow - you can replace it with Efficiency, Hydraulics, Rebuke or [\[Stretch\]](#). Another flexible mod here is [\[Necramech Deflection\]](#). Whatever you choose, depend on your playstyle.

Pay attention that you need only 5 forma to achieve max level 40 but 6 in total to fill up every slot (this one comes with 3 polarity - Madurai, Vazarin and Naramon).
