Hildryn isn't very weapon dependent.

for general use (like AoE / Fire Rate + Punch Through) or certain scenarios (like Archon Busting), but for the most part, you can mod most weapons into killing machines.

Specific answer: Hildryn has armor strip, so you really can't go wrong with her. Something that is both AoE and built for raw damage will take her far. At MR 10, I would look towards the Tonkor or Acceltra.

i like the fulmin in her because casting pillage doesnt interrupt the 'reload'

Not answering your question directly, but her signature weapon is Larkspur. It is a fun/awesome archgun.

The Tenet Cycron (when properly modded) is one of the best weapons in the game. It's very similar to the Kuva Nukor, but personally I prefer the Cycron due to it being a battery weapon (which means it leaves all the ammo pickups for my primary). It also just feels more satisfying to use.

It's a great weapon to use for any frame!
