Mastery Rank

1KVIEW SOURCEMastery RankChecklist

Mastery Ranking, commonly abbreviated as MR, is a method of tracking how much of the game's total content a player has experienced with points earned by ranking up Warframes, Weapons, Companions, K-Drives, Necranechs, and Archwings with Affinity; successfully completing Junctions and nodes on the Star Chart; and ranking up Intrinsics.

In-game, every rank after MR30 is called a Legendary (L) and or Legendary Rank (LR).

Players can view their own Mastery Progress and Rank by hovering the cursor over their Avatar on the top left corner of the UI. The profiles and Mastery progress of the player and other squad members can also be viewed by clicking "Profile" under their equipment tab. These details of other players in chat or in communications can be viewed by selecting their name and clicking "Profile."

Increasing Mastery Rank

Contents

To increase Mastery Rank, a player must earn Mastery Points through the following methods:

- Ranking Weapons, Kitgun Chambers, Zaw Strikes, Amp Prisms, Sentinel weapons, and Archwing weapons will earn 100 mastery points for each rank gained up to Rank 30 for a total of 3,000.
  - Kitguns, Zaws, and Amps must be ranked up to 30, gilded at their respective vendors, then ranked up again to award mastery points.
  - The ~~✓~~ Paracesis, all Kuva weapons, and all Tenet weapons can exceed Rank 30 by 2 ranks per polarization by Forma and will continue to grant mastery points for each additional level until they reach Rank 40 at 5 Forma, totaling 4,000 mastery.
- Ranking Warframes, Companions, Archwings, K-Drives, the Plexus, and Necranechs will earn 200 mastery points for each rank gained up to Rank 30 for a total of 6,000, or 8,000 for a Necranech that has been polarized 5 times.
  - MOAs, Predasites, and Vulpaphylas must be ranked up to 30, gilded at their respective vendors, then ranked up again to award mastery points.
    - K-Drives, despite their modular nature, do not require gilding to be able to award mastery points.
  - Necranechs can exceed Rank 30 by 2 ranks per polarization by Forma and will continue to grant 200 mastery points for each additional level until they reach Rank 40 at 5 Forma.

- Clearing the main objective of any Mission node for the first time and extracting will grant a predetermined number of mastery points (Map progress can be viewed in the general stats in the profile menu).
- Victory against the opponent specter in a Junction grants 1,000 mastery points.
- Each rank of a Railjack's and Drifter's Intrinsics grants 1,500 mastery points.

Take note that each individual equipment will only grant its mastery points once per variant; polarization or selling a Rank 30 equipment and then purchasing & reusing it will not grant mastery points again, including in the event that a copy of already max-ranked equipment is obtained and used. If equipment below max rank are sold, then purchased and reused, only the ranks previously not gained will grant mastery points.

Variants of original equipment count as a different equipment for mastery ranking; MK1, Prime, Syndicate, Vandal, Wraith, Prisma, Dex, Kuva, Tenet, the Mara Detron, the Ceti Lacera, and the Carmine Penta. For example, Braton, MK1-Braton, Braton Vandal, and Braton Prime are all considered different weapons, each with their own set of mastery points, with a total of 12,000 mastery points for fully ranking all four weapons. The same goes for different breeds of same-species Companion such as Chesa Kubrow, Raksa Kubrow, and Helminth Charger. Completing missions in The Steel Path also awards mastery that is separate from normal missions and Junctions.

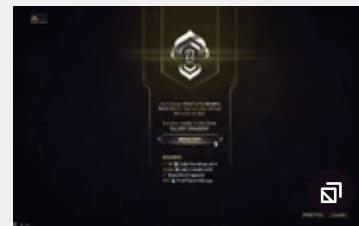

Excess mastery points are not lost if a player reaches the amount required to advance a rank – these will automatically fill the next mastery bar, displayed only once the player has succeeded on the rank-up test.

Mastery Rank Tests

In order to be promoted to the next Mastery Rank, a player must pass a test for each progressive rank they are trying to achieve. Mastery tests can only be accessed in solo play. Each test is different and usually harder between ranks.

When a player becomes eligible for their next Mastery

Rank they will be alerted and be given the option to proceed to the test immediately or wait. If the player chooses to wait they can access the test by simply hovering over their profile icon and selecting the "Rank Up" option later. The player's next Mastery Rank test will also be available for practice and, if eligible, for rank up in Cephalon Simaris' Relay room, alongside the player's past completed Mastery Rank tests.

Mastery Test prompt with option to practice

It is recommended players go along the right aisle of the Cephalon Simaris room in most relays to practice for the current test beforehand. Outside of practice mode, inability to complete a test due to forfeiting or disconnection will consume the allowed attempt for the current day.

Players are also able to redo previous tests along the Cephalon's aisle. Players will be able to access all the tests previously passed, as well as the one for the next level.

The Operator cannot be used for Mastery Rank tests at 23 and below.

Timed Exterminate

Test

This test requires the player to kill 35 enemies before the timer runs out. The player must destroy several orbs with their melee weapon to extend the timer, which spawn in random locations around the map.

Warframe - Mastery Rank 21 Test

Tips

- The timer starts at 20 seconds, and each orb adds 15 seconds to the timer.
- A total of 8 orbs will spawn, after which the player will be unable to further increase the remaining time.
- Ranged melee weapons, such as the Glaive and Excalibur's Exalted Blade can be used to destroy the orbs from a distance.

an agile loadout is preferred.

Consider bringing a Bullet Jump mod to help travel between platforms.

- Utilizing a Warframe with AoE abilities such as

Ash, Saryn

Ember, and Saryn, will allow the player to eliminate enemies with minimal effort.

Mastery Ranks Allocation

- Experience needed for each level, up to MR 30, is calculated by the formula:  $2,500 \times (\text{Rank}^2)$
- For Legendary ranks:  $2,250,000 + (147,500 * \text{Legendary rank \#})$

Other Benefits

- Unranked equipment in the inventory will begin with a mod capacity equal to the player's current Mastery Rank, with the maximum being 30 for Mastery Rank 30 way, it provides higher-ranked players with a significant starting benefit, especially towards polarized equipment.

- This also applies for Legendary ranks on equipment whose ranks can be increased above 30. For example, Legendary 1 increases the minimum capacity to 31 (62 with an Orokin Reactor/Catalyst).
- After polarizing Warframes, Archwings, and Necramechs, equipment will retain ability unlocks and/or ranks as if the equipment's rank were equivalent to the player's mastery rank (stats will still reset to rank 0, however).
- Each rank-up increases the daily maximum Syndicate standing by 500 (starting from 16,000 for [MRO]).
- Each rank-up increases the maximum accumulation cap of Void Traces by 50 (starting from 100 for [MRO]).
- Each rank-up increases the daily maximum of Focus points earned through Focus Lenses by 5,000 (starting from 250,000 for [MRO]).
- Each rank-up increases the maximum enemy level in the Simulacrum by 5 (starting from 30 for [MRO]).
- Each rank-up for Legendary ranks awards a Legendary Core.
- Each rank-up awards a Mastery Slate Orbiter Decoration.
- The Mastery Sigil changes in aesthetic design every 3 ranks; as Sigil color is defined by the player; having a bronze, silver, or gold mastery rank does not affect the available Sigil colors in any way. Players have no way of reverting the cosmetic Sigil back to previous designs if they complete the next bronze Mastery Rank test.
- The number of Extractors a player can deploy is Mastery Rank dependent, starting at one and increasing by one with Mastery Ranks 5 and 10; with Founders and/or Prime Access status granting an additional drone each.

Notes

- Minimum Mastery Rank requirement only applies to trading and crafting from a blueprint; if the equipment can be placed into one's Arsenal (such as through Prime Access, as a quest or event reward, ready-to-claim Foundry items most notably Kuva and Tenet weapons, etc.), it will bypass the lock. For example, Broken War cannot be crafted until Rank 10, but any player who completes The Second Dream will be awarded a crafted weapon regardless of their rank.
- Before the Stalker was given a stricter ruleset, he could appear during the Mastery Rank Tests.<sup>[1]</sup>
- Paracesis's, Kuva Lich Weapons, Tenet Weapons, and Necramechs maximum rank increases by 2 every time it's polarized, up to 40 at 5 polarizations. These 10 extra ranks will grant Mastery Points like normal.
- Resources dropped during the test seem to be identical to those dropped in the Void.<sup>[2]</sup>

Bugs

- Failing a practice test will still increase "Missions failed" stat in Player's profile.

Trivia

- If a player reaches a Mastery Rank that the developers haven't developed a unique Mastery Rank test for it, the game will reuse the previous Mastery Rank's test.
- Prior to Hotfix 27.3.6 \(2020-03-31\)<sup>[citation needed]</sup>, Mastery Rank 30 was called "Grand Master".
