Amalgam Furax Body Count

Question/Request

Has anyone had experience modding the Furax Wraith with this mod? Is it worth taking out an elemental damage mod to use the Amalgam Furax BC mod for the blast effect? I've yet to get the incarnon, currently using base Furax Wraith.

The damage from the blast effect is minuscule. IMO the primary use of that mod is the fire rate boost for secondary weapons.

So if you're planning on killing things with your melee, it's safe to skip. If you're looking to boost your secondary damage, then it's great.

That weapon does have a fantastic crit chance though. If you can get your hands on Blood Rush you can use the combo duration to keep that ramped up.

Got it. I thought of pairing it with a Tenet Detron and will try it on Mag later.

I only use this as a way to boost the rate on my secondary without eating a mod slot. It makes Dante enjoyable.

Great tip! I'll try it with Dante. Do you use Onos by any chance?

Pro Mesa tip. If you find yourself not using a melee weapon with her, buy the MK-1 Furax for credits and slap this baby on

The Furax having its Riven Disposition nerfed is the "Boom and Zoom" meta metastasizing to the game's other systems, and a canary in the coal mine for AoE weapons going unchecked
