Broken Warframes adrift in the Void converged to create Xaku. Together, they deal high damage. Xaku proves that the sum of the whole is greater than its parts.

Forged from the remnants of lost Warframes, they channel the spirits of the Void. This is Xaku, the fragmented, the restored.

In the concert of mayhem, Xaku is a law unto themselves, Tenno.

Notes

- When Xaku wields their signature Quassus, the weapon's ethereal daggers become more accurate.
- Xaku's Void damage is only capable of proccing its Bullet Attractor status and resetting Sentient and Shadow Stalker resistances, and only Xata's Whisper and The Lost's Deny can do this. Their Void damage lacks all other benefits, including bypassing Eidolon-type Sentient invulnerabilities and changing Profit-Taker Orb's shield weakness.

Trivia

- Xaku is the 44th unique Warframe to be released.
- Xaku is the second community-designed Warframe after Nova. Xaku's theme selected from the chosen entries is "Broken Warframe", suggested by forum community member eaterofstorms.
 - Xaku's abilities were selected from multiple suggestions by hundreds of community members in the Open Call \(https://forums.warframe.com/topic/173031-be-part-of-the-next-community-created-warframe/\) forum threads, with a Void-manipulation power theme chosen by the developers.
 - Community artists involved with the design of Xaku and their accessories include: Eornheit (Warframe concept art), Faven (alternate helmet), Kedemel (signature weapon), and Karu (signature Syandana).
- Because Xaku is an amalgamation of three different Warframes, Xaku is the first Warframe to not have a distinct gender, being addressed by DE as "they/them".^[2]
 - Despite this, concept art for Xaku shows that they were originally designed as a distinctly feminine Warframe. Some elements of this early design were incorporated into the final version.^[3]
- Xaku's idle, dodge, and ability animations involve the fragmentation of their body parts and exposure of the arboriform skeletal structure beneath.
 - Xaku is the sixth Warframe with unique rolling animations, after Limbo, Hildryn, Wisp, Titania Prime, and Protea, where Xaku launches themselves forward a short distance while their broken pieces come apart and reattach onto their energized skeletal form.
 - Xaku becomes fully skeletal in appearance while The Vast Untime is

- Xaku's ability names relate to four Requiem Mods: Xata, Lohk, Fass and Ris.
 - The Lost's name may refer to part of Fass' description ("Roiling, moaning this realm of ours / In madness lost shall die") and the name of its sub-abilities - Gaze, Accuse, and Deny - are taken from Ris' description ("*In luminous space blackened stars / They gaze, accuse, deny")
- Xaku is the first Warframe to possess an ability buff that deals Void damage.
- Xaku is the first Warframe to break the trend that all Warframe base attributes are multiples of 5.
- Xaku's skeletal form has a visible face (https://vignette.wikia.nocookie.net/warframe/images/0/0e/Xaku_face.png) with distinct eye slits and eyes within them, marking them as the second Warframe in the game to have visible facial features, after Excalibur Umbra.
- When Xaku is unarmed and using Wisp's Agile animation, they will split into their composite and skeletal form. This is similar to Wukong, who summons his Celestial Twin with the same animation, or Equinox who will split into her Day and Night forms.
