I tested it in the simulacrum, and while it's true that the glaive detonation is a heavy attack and does not proc tennokai, the glaive physically connecting with a target does proc tennokai. Additional bounces after the first hit does not seem to count (at least not with Discipline's Merit).

Using Discipline's Merit, I successfully proc'd tennokai on every 4 direct (throw) hits with a glaive, resulting in a free glaive detonation through tennokai.

This is tested with Xoris and Wolf's Sledge with various combinations of tennokai mods and levels of glaive bounce.

Edit: I also tested if the extra hit from melee duplicate counts towards Discipline's Merit's 4-hit proc, and with 100% crit chance and a rank 1 (40% chance) Melee Duplicate, I have yet to proc tennokai in less than 4 hits.

Just as an added note on Tennokai procs, the actual throw from Cobra and Crane counts, and you can throw the shield and ground slam with the same input and it counts as 2 melee attacks.

I run Opportunity's Reach on mine for giggles and it 100% procs from THROWS, not detonations.
