Glaive and Heavy Attacks

Discussion

Things i've noticed about Glaive and Heavy Attacks:

- The throw uses the Heavy Attack modifier
- While the mod doesn't causes the detonation, you can still trigger it manually with the Heavy Attack button
- Using Attack (not Heavy Attack) while the Glaive is midair will recall it without detonating
- The detonation is actually a heavy attack and uses combo counter
- Throws don't eat the combo counter, and in fact add to it

Just figured i'd share this information

I just wish I didn't have a 60% chance to blow the thing up in my face when I need quick healing... I wish they could somehow add a heavy throw that will use up combo counter without exploding that you can detonate to deal heavy damage, though I also want glaive throws to contribute to the counter cause I'm greedy... I guess what I'm asking for is impossible. They better fix orvius to be worth anything, though...

Oh I didn't know about the safe normal attack recall. Cool!
