Info

- Cast  Light Verse and/or  Dark Verse to fill in 2 pages that complete the Final Verse. Cannot be cast without two pages. Once the story is written, Dante fulfills the narrative by expending  50 energy on cast, which grants him 1 second of Invulnerability during casting and materializes one of four stories based on page order: Triumph, Tragedy, Wordwarden, or Pageflight, while removing both pages from the storybook display above the ability icons. Each story lasts for  30 / 35 / 40 / 45 seconds with a range of  15 / 20 / 25 / 30 meters.
  - The specific story ability icon appears above the storybook display when two pages are filled, with the pages visually glowing.
  - Replace filled pages from the right to left by recasting Light or Dark Verses to create the desired story combination.
  - Stories with active duration appear as ability buff timers beside Dante's hitpoints indicator.
- All stories can be recast while active.
- Casting Final Verse is a full-body animation that allows uninterrupted movement and parkour Maneuvers.
- Dante's four favored chapters exhibit diverse effects involving protection, damage, summoning, and debuffing:

Triumph   Tragedy   Wordwarden   Pageflight

- Written with first Light and last Dark pages (default  then  ). Wordwarden summons 1 spectral Noctua companion that floats beside Dante and his allied Warframes in story range on cast for its story duration, attacking enemies struck by its warder player's weapons for 35% / 40% / 45% / 50% of the original including Status Chance for its

- Wordwarden Noctua targets the enemy last struck by its warded player, firing up to 9 times per second if using a rapid-fire gun.
- Wordwarden Noctua will not use the Alternate Fire.
- Wordwarden fires a homing Noctua energy projectile toward the warded player's target. The projectile has travel time and can be blocked by obstacles in the environment, unless modded with Punch Through stat.
- Wordwarden appears to ignore the effects of Fire Rate and Multishot mods placed on Noctua.
- Wordwarden will proc Archon Stretch and provide the energy regen when it procs Electricity status. Provided the Exalted Noctua has Electricity on it.
- Ability Synergy:
  - Kills from Wordwarden Noctua passively scan enemies into the Codex. Wordwarden Noctua also gains 50% Status Chance against enemies that have been fully scanned.
  - Wordwarden inherits Mods placed on Noctua and splits page fragments on hit that charge the held Noctua's alt-fire.
