Yeah whoever decided to make the Grendel missions like this? You're a fucking sadist and I hope you stub all of your toes in turn and then stub them again whenever one is about to heal. Fuck you. I had more fun grinding gems for Citrine for hours compared to this BS.

Fuck the people at DE who made this mission. 30 seconds. THIRTY SECONDS and these fucks decide to stop spawning enemies or life support modules. Eat my ass DE.

I finally beat it with mag + tenet arca plasmor (for priority units) + glaive prime (for fodder)

I tried and failed with wisp + glaive prime and kullervo + pennant, though I think these setups could work if played better

Jesus christ what a boring drag that was Kullervo and Cerata somehow just works. Easy enough to get, and it's force proceed poison. First ability kills eximus units too.

Helminth abilities work too, but Operator/Arcanes don't. Pretty much the same with Companions. Kullervo works, when all else fails apparently.

Just completed it with Wisp Prime and, funny enough, the Grimoire. The alt fire on Grimoire melts things at a low level.

Bring Nekros without an augment and your most powerful unmodded weapon(mine was tenet arca plasmor because innate radiation and big spread). Stay near life support modules because you HAVE to use them. Enjoy your life when it is time for eximus units to spawn. I hope you don't value your time as much as person who designed this mission did.

Would rather farm for Ultra Rare drop chance compared to these 3 abysmal Grendel missions. Unbelievably bad experience

Used Nekros and Trumna and it was pretty easy.

Call your friend, player 1 Wisp + Shedu, player 2 Nekros + Shedu. Nekros' third ability mod works here. Absolutely nailed it, guaranteed pass on first attempt.

This is the worst 20 minutes i ever played in a game. I killed everything, every time and the spawn is so slow that i run out of time. Horrible experience.

20. Fucking. Minutes.

What a tedious borefest.

You could prolly afk the whole thing if the spawns weren't too slow to support you with enough modules.

I tried 6 times, until I used saryn with tharros strike subsumed + redeemer prime to solo this. People recommend Hildryn, Sonikor, Frigor Prime...
