[The Lotus Eaters Quest Discussion]

Hey Tenno

Just finished [The Lotus Eaters] quest from Update 36.1, and wow—what an experience! The narrative is intense, especially with the Drifter's journey, and it adds more depth to Lotus' character. The connection between the *Man in the Wall and the overall atmosphere were eerie yet beauti

What are your thoughts on the quest? How did you feel about the Drifter's role and the choices you had to make?

Also, any theories on how this will impact the future storyline? Let's discuss it!

Question

Helloooo (ignore my username I know it has spoilers for another series)

I joined Warframe 2 months ago because of the recommendation of my brother. I have beaten the latest quests like Jade Shadows but still have HUGE trouble fighting against enemies with Level 40 and above, and I am still afraid of Spy and Interception missions.

Do you guys have any recommended MODS that allows me to deal more damage to enemies?

Any comments would be appreciated!

Speaking of which I am using a Saryn Prime/Excalibur Umbra with a Nataruk, Grimoire, and Syam.

Ay 2 questions.

1. Does wukongs clone prock ceramic dagger incarnon second passive" Gun and blade" where when you kill a enemy you gain 1 initial combo?
2. Any good builds for the prisma grakata? All I'm seeing are builds from years ago.

Wukong/Prime, Prisma Grakata, Ceramic Dagger Incarn

Totally Random... Ropalolyst appearing on Jupiter during invasion

Since Update 25, Jovian Concord when Wisp and Ropalolyst were first introduced, I never realized that the Ropalolyst would appear on a Jupiter mission. It started from the corner of the big empty space, shot its beams a few times and then flapped its merry way around the corner.

Here are a few screenshots I captured during an Invasion on Jupiter, Amalthea node.

Ay question.

Every time I look at a wukong prime video, it's always the same slam strat again and again. The only other strat I see is for spy missions, Which is just the slam strat but without slam. Idk I just wanna feel like I'm playing wukong, not kullvero or Loki. Any other strat would be nice.

Ay question.

Is it better to use Naramon for weapon combo or zenzurik for energy for kullervo? Every time I use naramon, I don't got energy, but every time I use zenzurik I don't got my combo. Idk which is worse.

Kullervo

Quick question

Do prime warframes and weapons come with a built in orokin reactor/catalyst or will I have to install one?
