Anyone heard of Muller Kitchen Knives?

I picked up a set of Muller Kitchen knives (14 piece) for $30 at an auction. I know they're not really the best compared to Wusthof or Shun, but I wanted something decent without paying a fortune since I'm on a budget right now. I tried to do some searching on them but didn't find much and only found one price for the set of $179.00 for the set. Anyone have any info on them or have tried them?

We'd never show up empty-handed. Volkswagen Gewürz Ketchup Brand, the condiment brought to you by a car company.

Cool. Yeah I have my doubts about the legitimacy of that price.

Was gifted a Benchmade strap cutter by a buddy today. As a budget knife guy this'll probably be my one and only blade from this brand.
