[012] INCARNON Anku | 12x Light Attack, 12x Heavy Attack (Slash/Raw Viral), 2x Heavy Spam

Nulla. Introduction:

Introduced: 30/07/2023.

Q: Is it better than [Hate] Incarnon?

A: Nope.

Since its hotfix, [Anku] is now one of the best slash melees available with the caveat of having to slide every 6s to upkeep this buff, but I digress: increased range (+3m), guaranteed Bleed Procs on hit (no matter the source, except slam AoEs), x2 slash (bleed) proc damage... what more can you ask for? Blend and tear is all I have to say.

• I will update this guide accordingly to new findings/future changes.

I. Unlisted Recommendations:

• Primary/Secondary AoE Primer:

A primer is the term used to describe another weapon (external source) that is allotted to the role of applying multiple status effects before using your primary weapon of DPS. Most melee builds will heavily benefit from not only the viral status effect but also from additional unique statuses since they will

V. Final Notes & Calculations (%) (Non-Quantised):

• Incarnon [\[Anku\]](#) Final Evolution Comparison Table:

[\[Anku\]](#) stuff:

Echoes of Duviri: Hotfix 33.6.5: While making this change, we found that all melee attacks following a Slide Attack were able to maintain the Incarnon buff (instead of just the intended Slide attack), so long as the attack animations were uninterrupted. We have fixed this issue and incorporated this functionality as a 6s timer.

- The 6s timer can be completely bypassed and remain for the full duration of the incarnon form (180s) on Warframes with an Exalted Melee ability. This can be done by proccing the perk, casting the exalted ability to swap to the exalted melee ([\[Valkyr Talons\]](#), [\[Exalted Blade\]](#), [\[Desert Wind\]](#) etc.) and then swapping back. While the UI displays that the buff has worn out, the perk is actually still active allowing the player to use the [\[Anku\]](#) without needing to slide every 6s to refresh the perk like it usually should. This needs to be refreshed every 180s as the per the incarnon transformation timer.

description will get too long).

VI. Legacy Writing:

Unlisted video of it not working:

<https://youtu.be/SayIP4wP7cM>

• As of this guide's release date (30/07/2023 or U33.6), the [Anku]'s Incarnon feature doesn't work or is not impactful in the very slightest despite what the UI implies:

"Increase Range and Slash Damage during slide attacks in Incarnon Form."

- if the feature is: added Slash Weight % on slide attacks, it's not enough of a difference to be noticeable (assuming it does change) (no forced slash on slide attacks either).
- if the feature is: added Damage to Bleeds (slash DoTs) during slides, it's not present (tested both Light and Heavy attacks).
- if the feature is: increased Range during slides, it's not there or not noticeable (some earlier tests showed +0.5? Very unclear on that front).

• Echoes of Duviri: Hotfix 33.6.1 (01/08/2023): "Fixed issue where [Anku] Incarnon didn't properly benefit from Range and Slash Damage bonus on Slide Attacks, and didn't inflict any status effects." Only Range got fixed.

As stated above, range has been fixed (which has been roughly tested to be +1-2m range, hard to say when sliding forward), however the other traits remain to be actually fixed. Slash status is still not forced nor is the proc or DoT buffed by the incarnon perk, this has been tested on both light slide attacks as well as heavy slide attacks.

• Echoes of Duviri: Hotfix 33.6.5 (22/08/2023): It works now! all of it! very nice, build update soon (and moving above updates to the bottom section once a build for it is done).
