Ophanim Eyes is insane

Imo this is one of the top tier Helminth abilities now, up there with Gloom and Nourish. Between this and Arcane Battery my Chroma is feeling so good

Also what do you use for weapons? I'm going to be running glaive prime and epitaph but do you have a preference on primary?

That's really Chroma's strong suit, because of his damage buff (while not the best in the game) you can make a large variety of weapons more than viable so I tend to change up weapons frequently. The obvious Torid and Latron incarnons are stupidly strong, I've been using the tenet glaxion recently which I like on Chroma more than others since it's a little underpowered compared to Torid but chroma buffs it so much that it feels really good. I also use a Glaive prime or Xoris most of the time and since that takes care of most aoe clearing situations, you can use like an exergis or other BFG for insane single target damage, etc etc.
