Grandmaster Protea, The Daughter and Reaper of Time Build Guide - Grandmasters Arsenal

Grandmaster [Protea] is finally here with her build, which features three separate builds with three different flavors to try and have fun with.

Unlike most Proteas that walk around spamming abilities, this build is a walking time bomb—requiring specific load-outs to achieve the said result.

Starting off with Build One, Granum Flame is a Tauforged Topaz-focused build that combines weapons with Radiation and Heat to bolster [Blaze] Artilleries burn damage.

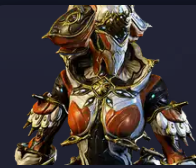

While any weapon with radiation and heat can achieve this, probably even better than the Larkspur, I enjoy using it due to its high-status application and range.

You can find it here

The Second Build, Flash Assassin, is a Tauforged Emerald-focused build specializing in Speed, Execution, and Stealth.

The Third is more focused on Raw Upfront Damage; after all, who needs spamming abilities when you can eliminate everything in sight?
