Trivia

- After the poll on the founders forum she was to be named after Sarin, which is a colorless, odorless liquid, used as a chemical weapon owing to its extreme potency as a nerve agent. It was altered to Saryn when a first responder to a sarin attack suggested a name tweak, along with Sarin sounding too masculine.^[1]
- She is the first female Warframe whose base stats defy a trend of fragility, having health and armor values that exceed those of many male Warframes.
- She is the 4th tallest out of the current 49 other frames, and is matched by Gyre in terms of height.
- Saryn is the 1st Warframe to replace Alloy Plates with Circuits for construction – the 2nd is the Valkyr.
- Saryn was given an Immortal Skin in Update 12.0 (2014-02-05).
- Unlike most other Warframes, Saryn does not bear a symmetrical appearance. This is due to the tissue/matter which is situated on her right thigh, her neck and around her hips. This tissue/matter vaguely resembles the Infested tissue (or rather the structure of it) sometimes found on Corpus and Grineer ships.
- Saryn's ability sound effects post Update 22.20 (2018-05-17) are voiced by [DE]Danielle.
- Saryn's Systems is a requisite ingredient for Chroma's Systems.
- The line in Lotus' summary, "Get down with the sickness, Tenno." is a reference to
