Jade Light

 11  EDIT

They opened the chamber door just in time for me to see it happen; the Archimedian erupting into a flash, jade-like and blinding. I knew her. She was the greatest scholar of genetics who ever lived. Except now she was nothing but mist and gore...

—Crewman Synthesis imprint

Honored Seven, we have gathered here today to carry out the sentencing of Archimedean Margulis. You face the Jade Light, recant and we will grant a merciful death.

—Ballas

See, in the old days, crime and punishment was all in the hands of those Orokin judges, the Seven. Mercy was a quick flash of the Jade light...

—Nora Night during Nightwave Series 3

The Jade Light was used by the Orokin as a means of "honorably" executing defectors and those who opposed the law. It functioned as a disintegration ray that turned the accused into nothing but "mist and gore". It was channeled through the  Jade Warframe, who was kept in stasis within the execution chamber.

The Myrmidon carried a portable version of the Jade Light.

Known Victims

- Archimedean Margulis - Sentenced by Ballas for protecting the Tenno
- Archimedean Yonta - Committed suicide to escape the horrors of the Zariman Ten Zero, an "undeserved" honor. Survived due to Conceptual Embodiment.
- Archimedean Javi - Was sentenced due to his forbidden research into alchemy and transmutation. Sentence was overturned into cellular reversal, as his executors believed he would somehow survive the Jade Light.
-  Ivara's two Warframe allies - Killed by the Myrmidon, a Warframe hunter whose victims were deemed unworthy of being remembered and thus erased from history.

Lore

Belly of the Beast

Parvos Granum seeks to weaponize the Jade Light from the  Jade Warframe, using her remnants of  Volatile Motes to create a new army of Eximus.
