EDIT

While the Entrati family's cohort of lethal Necramechs succumbed to the corrupting influence of Deimos, Loid's shielding kept him sane, as well as preserving what was left of his 'passenger', the Cephalon Otak. Together they maintain a proud tradition of loyal service.

Necraloids are Entrati machines operated by Cephalons, serving as loyal servants to the Entrati family.

Trivia

- On the walls around the Cosmic Clock, there is text which is possibly a written version of Albrecht Entrati's story that is unlocked when ranking up in the two Necralisk Syndicates, and there is also text on walls around Necralisk.
 - The text is possibly written in a variation of the Orokin Language or another unknown language.
 - During Home Devstream 5 Rebecca referred to it as "Mad Scientist Writing".
- In preparation for TennoCon 2023, Hotfix 33.6.6 (2023-08-25) added three repeated knocks within the Necraloid room.  (download, history)
 - TennoCon 2023 teased Whispers in the Walls, revealing a deeper laboratory beneath the Necralisk that details Albrecht Entrati's ongoing war with The Man in the Wall.
- After unlocking Sanctum Anatomica by completing Whispers in the Walls, the door to the Necraloid room is no longer restricted to the Operator, meaning that players can enter and exit the room as their Warframe.
