Warframe Slide Attack Macro 2019

To Be Flaired

Today I was asked how I was doing 97% of the damage in an Endo farm on Vodyanoi by a guy with Atterax and Maiming strike. The answer is a Cyath Zaw (Cyath, Shtung, and Ekwana II Jai thanks to <https://www.cephalonwannab.com/> by u/i_wanna_b_the_guy) with Maiming strike and also my Slide Attack Macro. I promised him that I'd share it here for everyone to use.

I read a lot online trying to find a good macro and in the end was forced to create it by myself. It's pretty simple.

You download Autohotkey.

Then download my Slide Attack Macro shared from my google drive.

This is what the macro contains. You can remap the keys as you see fit.

Do as you please, but man, there's few things as boring as seeing a macro user in your team just spinning around like a beyblade through the level.

Macros are usually a frowned upon by DE, be careful.

I was under the impression that anything not on a 1:1 ratio is bannable?

This gives an unfair advantage to anyone using it as you literally don't have to press/hold an entire button to pull a combo.

I wont be using this myself , and i'd advise anyone else considering it to be extremely careful.

Thanks for sharing though OP.
