Ceramic dagger unalerted stealth finisher not opening up

Question/Request

I am wondering if the stealth finishers are not working right now...? I am trying to level ceramic dagger incarnon.

I can't for the life of me open up any enemies to stealth finishers, even when using Ivara/equinox sleep or invis loki with prisma shade (without coolant leak).

I tried removing all weapons besides ceramic dagger.

Exterminate and capture missions.

Nothing works. I am crouch-walking, not bumping into any1. Tried getting different angles and distances in enemies backs... corpus and grineer... nothing works the prompt doesn't show up even when all radar triangles are empty red unalerted status.

I think something else may be wrong. Have you chosen one of the prior incarnon unlocks? I don't think it'll count the challenge if you leave it unselected.

Headed to sleep. Hope this helps.

Haha funny coincidence.

Yup I had all prior incarnon unlocks selected and was also solo.

Weird thing is, after I gave up trying last night, I went into defense and survival pubs with Wukong and my celestial twin was getting random finisher stealth kills while I was just blowing everything up with torid. XD.... got up to 18/20 last night so I guess ill just continue doing that lol

And I don't think the challenge was the issue, more like it was in game when trying to do the stealth mechanics, the dialog box to start the finisher never showed up.

Surprisingly effective. Chain Knife's weird hit boxes can also shred its health bar

Trying to do the "Kill unalerted Tusk Ballistas with headshots" riven challenge but they keep being turned into glass whenever I get near. Happened with 3 watchtowers in a row.

What sniper rifle could I use to headshot tusk ballistas unalerted? I'm MR9 and if possible, the weapon is easy to grind out
