Acquisition

- May appear as a Steel Path Circuit Tier 1, 3, 4, 6, or 7 reward on a weekly rotational basis.
- May be sold by Acrithis for 10 Pathos Clamps on a daily rotational basis, requiring Drifter Intrinsic Opportunity Rank 9 for the arcanes to appear in her shop.
- May drop from Undercroft portals in the Duviri Experience while on Steel Path.

Notes

- The values are additive with mods like Pistol Gambit and Target Cracker.
- While the buff is active, swapping to secondary will not consume Combo unless it would provide a higher buff than the active one.
 - For example, if the current buff is +100% (swapping from a 5x combo), the arcane will not consume your combo if your combo level is 5x or below when you swap.
- The buff affects all secondaries, even exalted pistols like Regulators, Dex Pixia, and Balefire Charger.
- It is not possible to consume combo count from both a normal and exalted melee simultaneously, only whichever is currently active.
- The Venka Prime's increased maximum combo count works with this arcane, allowing for a slightly larger buff than is possible with other melee weapons.

agger Incarnon as well as Crescendo, which is easily

Snare, Airburst, Coil Horizon, Pull, etc.

Bugs

- Still incorrectly provides the buff, again only for Clients, and seemingly only when using Gunblades. Specifically, Vastilok and Redeemer Prime were used in testing.

Patch History

Hotfix 35.0.9 (2024-01-17)

- Fixed the following issues with Secondary Outburst when used by Clients:
 - Fixed Clients' Combo Multipliers not being consumed when switching to Secondary.
 - Fixed Clients' Secondary dealing less than the intended damage while Secondary Outburst's buffs are active.

Update 34.0 (2023-10-18)

- The Secondary Outburst Arcane has received some overall buffs! Additionally...
