Damage Decoy

12

 EDIT

Damage Decoy is a Warframe Augment Mod for  Loki's Decoy ability that allows Decoy to be cast onto an enemy, turning that enemy hostile to everything and inciting former allies to attack while having their damage reflected, amplified, and additionally succumbed to 5 random status effects.

Acquisition

- This mod can be acquired by attaining the rank of Maxim under Arbiters of Hexis, or the rank of Exalted under Red Veil, and spending 25,000 to purchase.

Notes

- Has no effect if placing decoy normally, as this augment only affects the new enemy interaction.
- The enemy will pulse with holographic energy identical to normal Decoy.
- The enemy will still be hostile to the player, and can be injured or killed by players.
 - As such their damage output cannot be buffed by players in any way except for attack speed increases through Rest & Rage or speeding up enemies with Molecular Prime.
- Because many status effects stun enemies (such as Impact or Heat) the damage reflected is limited and somewhat inconsistent since enemies stunned won't attack during their stun animation.

Decoy Augment: Decoy can be cast on enemies. Enemies who attack that decoy receive 5 random Status Effects, and the reflected damage is increased by 350%.
