Console Pre-Order Question - Deluxe Edition vs Standard

Question

Disclaimer - I have never played the game before the open beta this month.

The deluxe edition is roughly $20 USD more than the base game, but the content seems to only be a couple cosmetics. Anyone with experience with New World know the comparative worth of the pre-order items alongside other in-game, paid cosmetics?

I have searched high and low to figure out what the general consensus was on the Deluxe Edition, but haven't found anything. I understand we all have opinions on worth and if pre-ordering is good/bad, but I am mainly looking for objective answers and facts about the two different pre-ordering options.

Thank you and I am looking forward to seeing you on the 15th.

Cosmetics are the only thing you will gain, if that doesn't appeal to you then I would get the standard edition

An upgrade regardless from the PC deluxe edition

Going deluxe here kinda a collector so yeah the sad thing is all the twitch drops, and prime drops the pc players have that console players dosent or at least not yet (dont know if we will ever got thoese)

Im glad its coming to console since i dont have a gaming pc or anything, im a console player so yeah.

I would consider it bad. The extra 20 would be better spent on gear sets. I feel like a lot of console players are going to get caught off guard by them. They're a massive quality of life that can cost you. I've personally spent more on gear sets than the base game and dlc combined.

What are gear sets? New player here and no clue what are those. Thanks in advance!

The Deluxe edition doesn't give any advantage except the cosmetics, but completionists and New World stans are still salty they released the PC Azoth edition way after release and there's no other way to get those cosmetics.

At this point theorycrafting fixes for the game, that will never come, is my favorite part of it. Here are my fixes to the PvP Island.
