Is black desert dead in 2024

Genuinely wondering and not trying to hate on the game, but is black desert dead in 2024?

I started playing the game again recently and it felt like all of the life that was there in the last few years is just completely gone, and even the pvp feels somewhat stale with the current playerbase.

Is there anything a returning or new player can do to liven up the grind and world?

Is there any hope of the player base get a spike again with no upcoming expansions or content releases that are worthwhile?

Ye I've read that and it's just basic bullshit excuse. Ofc people complain about changes they don't enjoy. But as I said. Based on my observation you're the minority in this discussion because the in this situation loud majority enjoys the changes.

Try playing the game instead of observing.

Fighting for your grind spot has been an integral part of the game since it's conception.

Soft ass people like you who refuse to actually learn your class and then cry about dying are the reason the changes even came up.

adjust to the game like it is now. Otherwise stay unhappy and displeased and waste your time into a game you obviously don't enjoy that much anymore. Either way, irdc how you feel about it. It is what it is and luckily devs won't listen to crybabies like you are
