territory.

Does anyone even make a 32-34" 4k ips at 144+hz?

I've got too many products backordered with BH already, it's in stock and ready to ship on LG's website but at full price. EDIT: OOS on LG's website.

It was definitely back in stock at the LG store last night for a couple hours, yeah idk what's up with b&h they said they would have them in by Dec 21 now it's on backorder like they had them for a sec and sold out, never got a stock alert, frustrating, 4k uhd 144hz+ monitors seem to be hard to get right now Does LG even produce this monitor? Since weeks there is no dealer in Germany able to deliver.

It was the case in Belgium, too, but I just saw it on stock (919€), but I'm not sure if I take it or wait for the 27GP950...
