Characteristics

- This weapon deals primarily Puncture damage.
- Slam Attacks deal only Magnetic damage.
- Can be wielded in-tandem with a single-handed secondary weapon.
- Holding the melee button throws the glaive, which can bounce up to three times or travels up to 30 meters before returning to the user, damaging anyone in its path. Meleeing while the glaive is in mid-flight commands it to return.
- Primary and secondary weapons can be fired and reloaded normally with a thrown glaive, and retrieving the glaive does not interrupt these actions. Additional throws can also be "buffered" while the glaive is in mid-flight.
- Thrown glaive has a guaranteed Impact proc.
- Thrown glaive has a chance to disarm.
- Innate 1 meter punch through.
- Thrown glaive is silent.

Acquisition

The Halikar Wraith can be potentially sold by Baro Ki'Teer in the Concourse section of the Tenno Relay for 350,000 and 450. Note that Baro Ki'Teer's stock changes with each appearance, and this weapon may not be available on a succeeding appearance.

The weapon can be traded, but only for unranked copies without Forma and Orokin Catalyst installed. The trading recipient must also have a Mastery Rank of at least 13.

Notes

- When equipping the Halikar Wraith, the player can throw it and then press the melee button to detonate the Halikar Wraith, dealing high AoE damage and

- It should be however noted that finisher attacks can still be executed while the weapon is in the air.
- The Halikar Wraith is a unique weapon as it is the second equipable weapon (after Halikar) capable of disarming an enemy. This capability was initially reserved for Warframe abilities, including Radial Disarm.
  - This capability is removed whilst under the effect of a Radiation Proc.
  - Disarm chance is determined by the weapon's status chance. [citation needed]
- Unlike the Glaive and the Kestrel, the Halikar Wraith has a limited degree of homing capability in-flight by gently curving its flight path via thrusters. However, this ability only benefits targeting at longer range and is lost after the first bounce.
- Certain enemies cannot be disarmed, e.g. Ospreys or Capture Targets.
- The Halikar has a base range similar to the Kestrel, or 3/4 that of the Glaive. Like with other thrown weapons, using Whirlwind on the Halikar will increase flight speed as well as distance traveled, because the flight time is constant. A fully levelled Whirlwind will increase the maximum distance to ~63m.
- When used within Clan Duels, the enemy will have their weapon removed permanently and the wielder will have their weapon slot replaced with the stolen weapon.
  - Both the original weapon and the stolen weapon will be returned upon leaving the Clan Dojo.

Tips

- While hard to achieve, it is possible to disarm several enemies with one throw.
  - To get this to work in a way other than hoping for lucky rebounds, one can either use Power Throw for direct hits or a fully levelled Quick Return to hit them on the way back, as it will have a predictable return path and punch through everything on the way back.
  - The latter works even better in combination with Whirlwind when aiming past a lined-up group of enemies at a nearby wall and following up with a quick sidestep.
- Using Whirlwind is highly recommended as it can lead to easier headshots.

Media

- An unranked copy of Jen Dro's weapon can be stolen from her by using the Halikar thrown attack. It will replace the player's secondary weapon if they have one, which will hover in mid air.
- Disarmed enemies in the Simulacrum will sometimes try to attack the player even when the "Pause AI" option is toggled on.
