So who else adds "flavor text" or headcanon when thinking about their pawn and arisen.

Am I the only one who adds little background stuff internally when thinking about moments and characters. Since your character has amnesia I enjoyed making up a backstory. For example I have the head canon that my DD2 character is a descendant of the character I made in DD1, and designed him to look like a combination of of my DD1 character and his beloved. I also like to add flair when thinking up interactions between characters; like how I had my pawn where the same cloak throughout the game...

Just bought the in-game metamorphosis for my Arisen and my kid pawn. Pretty happy how they ended up looking.

Anyway to stop the hand holding?

If it isn't them being in bum fuck nowhere in a fight or running into enemies and getting themselves killed, I'm so tired of my pawns trying to "guide" me I don't need my pawns every 2 minutes running off and going "oh Arisen, the quest is this way" "oh Arisen, allow me to guide you" "Oh Arisen, I know your fighting 8 goblins in this cave, but the quest is this way, and I must tell you that over trying to help you" "oh Arisen, ignore the cyclops that's currently about to stomp me into the fucking ground like dogshit, I needed to...

Batthal Sneak

Anyone else sneak into Batthal earlier then you were supposed to? My experience: leveled up fast, low on everything, on death's doorstep, got caught by guards, sent to prison, had to walk all the way back to the gate twice, got jumped by everything, went through the area that was raining heavily, made it back to the border town through the ravine. Pawns were poisoned to death and I barely made it back to the inn. First playthrough. Edit: Snuck in through ox cart, got lost on the way to the Bakbattahl, took 3 in...

I'm a massive savings nerd. Here are the stupidest money mistakes I see people make.

1. Overpaying for car insurance The average American saves a whopping $410+ a YEAR (source) when they switch auto insurance carriers - sometimes significantly more than that: I saved $1,300 this year. The reason: some carriers offer discount prices to new customers when they switch. Take 30 seconds and go to a 3rd party comparison site (Coverage.com and Auto-Savings.com are both fine) to see if you can find cheaper rates. You'll likely save yourself a bunch of money. Some people suggest switching...

Is it safe to sell weapons and armour found in exploration?

Or some of these are unique and cannot be purchased from merchants. Hi 😊

How are you playing?

I'm new to this game and have been loving it so far, especially the exploration elements. Are you playing the main story primarily, or mainly wandering without a goal in mind until something interesting catches you? Just curious.

Finders Token Help Please

Pawn Name: Mamba Pawn ID: ZFM9HP32MVTI Could someone please gift me a finders token? I put in the the work, I grabbed every Seekers Token from Melve to Vernworth (even the out of the way ones) and it wasn't any of them. Apparently even missed obvious ones like the water fountain, not that one. I'm honestly cooked.

Please help me.

Please help me. I've tried everything and I can't use DLSS Enabler. I have a GTX 1060 6GB. I've used DLSS Enabler in other games like Wukong and it worked perfectly....

The age of robot overlords is fast approaching, but it's not here yet. In the meantime, turn to the Nerds for top financial products. They've done the research so you can find the right credit card, auto insurance, and more for you — before the robots arrive.

Help with finders token

Looking for help with a Finders Token on PS5. Can't for the life of me remember where I collected my first Seekers Token. I would really appreciate anyone who can send me a duped one. Pawn ID 5EV7H4QI4DTZ

Regarding BGM DLC

Is there some feature or menu I am missing regarding the "Change BGM and sounds DLC"? Because I remember a few tracks that were unique to monsters such as cyclops or chimeras, neither of which play. I was under the impression that it would be a similar system to the "Private Quarters" in monster hunter world (I am aware they are likely different devs for DD2) where you could select which track to play/replace. But I feel ripped off, is it just me or is it terribly implimented?

Or did the game not reach the level of success required these days for additional content or DLC? Feels like since launch the game has just gone quiet and all the focus will be on Monster Hunter Wilds

Paladin's Enigmata

Anyone mind dropping me this so I can get wild furie? I used the ballista on the Drake in Melve but it landed on a house and didn't count the kill (body disappeared no loot). PS5 Pawn ID: LGISYYHFA2CG

What's the hype around Mystic Spear hand?

So I am at lvl 6 as a Mystic Spear hand right now and a lot of sources online talk about how great, broken and "easy mode" this Vocation is and won't stop signing it's praise but I just don't see it. I came from around 30 hours as a Warrior and it was slow at first but I quickly got used to it and found it really fun and rewarding, but now playing as a Mystic Spear hand it just feels even more clunky and has no flow. The spin to win attack is very inconsistent to trigger as mashing light attack seems to work about 50% of t...

I think I've fucked up

So I was doing the spellbound and sorcerers appraisal quests and I think i misread the tips online, I gave the little girl forgeries and the dude the real ones but the girl hasn't given me the master spell. It's been almost a week ingame and all I got was a scroll for finding herbs and then a small quest to take her to martyrs resting spot? Have I messed this up. Really don't want to have to restart an entire new game how do I find these spells so I can use them all the time, not just one time use books, which is all i c...
