Will Frontiers of Pandora get more DLC's in 2025, or ever?

Discussion

While searching for this information I couldn't find any official statements from Ubisoft if there are any more plans for AFOP after the final Secrets of the Spires. But, I've found this information:

"According to Ubisoft and Avatar movie studio Lightstorm, everything in Frontiers of Pandora is canonical to the wider Avatar movie universe. Not only that, but Frontiers of Pandora may contain clues about the next Avatar movie, according to Lightstorm's Joshua Izzo.

He told IGN, "I can say that there are going to be some future sequel elements in Frontiers of Pandora that will pay off when the movie comes out, when Avatar 3 comes out in 2025," Izzo said. He added, "Careful Avatar fans who have played the game will want to go back and maybe revisit certain things because it will be revealed to them in '25."

I'm wondering now:
