Factions

VIEW SOURCE

The factions in WARFRAME are the civilizations and groups fighting for supremacy in the solar system; their conflict is the backdrop of the game's missions. Because nothing in the game indicates an alien origin of any faction, it is assumed that they all are human, trans-human, or created by humans.

The only playable faction are the  Tenno, although some quests will let you play as a member of another faction for their duration or part of it. Other factions such as the  Grineer, the  Corpus, the  Infested, the  Orokin, the  Sentient, the  Stalker, the  Narmer,  The Murmur, the  Scaldra, and the  Techrot are presented as adversaries, while the  Syndicates and the  Wild are mostly neutral, but can act as allies or enemies to the Tenno.

Tenno

They were called Tenno. Warriors of blade and gun: masters of the Warframe armor. Those that survived the old war were left drifting among the ruins. Now they are needed once more.

*The highly revered Orokin civilization built sovereignty on a culture of art, technology and architecture. To prove oneself worthy of elevated social status, one must face Orokin trials in the golden and majestic Halls of Ascension. Syndicates are groups of interest operating throughout the Origin System separate from the Corpus, Grineer, and the Tenno. These groups have their own ideologies and goals regarding the fate of the system, with some inevitably in disagreement with at least one other syndicate, though alliances between said syndicates exist.
