The spirits have a health and an attack value tied to their levels, you just can't see it anywhere. That's also why attack supports work on them, they modify the minion's actual hits against enemies

It should rise level of minion itself. If nothing wrong.

When you have them summoned it shows some extra stats, at least it does show how much life they have. For some reason my spirits have 1-13 damage.

That value is either completely broken or just the added damage. Mine were showing 1-3 at some point and now they're showing nothing, regardless of whether they're summoned.

Keep in mind that in poe 2, they dont have a spell tag, so + lvl of spells wont work

Either drop or get it from killing Ignagduk side boss from A3, gives a level 2 gem from quest

PSA POE2 Remember to ungem your support gems from any skill/spells that your Ascendancy gives before you refund the passive.
