Japanese subtitle provider?

I currently am using opensubtitles for my English subtitles, but bazarr can't find Japanese subtitles for any of my movies or shows. Do any of the providers have Japanese subtitles?

Kitsunekko net is the only one I know that have japanese and also english, chinese and korean (and still working), though probably it doesn't have all.

But I don't know if it's available as a provider for bazarr

Yeah, that's where I download them manually, but it's not a supported provider on bazarr unfortunately. It's been a feature request for awhile now though, so hopefully they'll add the API at some point.

In my experience opensubtitles is the best bet. You should get hits for most "originals" from popular (worldwide) streaming services. Outside that it's not very reliable, and a crapshoot on quality even when it does find what you need.
