Anybody try Louis Rossmann's FUTO Keyboard app?

Tech Discussion

Open Source. No internet required. And obviously it doesn't track you.

Tried using it. It's currently in pre-alpha but it is perfectly usable. So far I'm really liking it.

For context, I've been a GBoard user since I don't even know when.

I have been daily driving it. It's awesome. Tap type, swipe, emojis, voice to text. It good until you try with mixed languages like Hinglish. Thinking of supporting it by buying the lifetime time subscription.

Exactly. It's taking quite a while to create my personal dictionary. Considering it's in pre-alpha it's pretty good.

I just use GrayJay coz I don't trust YouTube with my account, I have RethinkDNS to block the tracking system wide.
