Addic7ed AuthenticationError -- cookies no valid

Is there any way to use Addic7ed with cookies and not have them expire or become invalid? Or do you need a Captcha service or premium account of some sort?

Safest way is to use anti-captcha.com. Some users have success with cookie but if you use cookie, don't specify username and password.

Most reliable subtitle website? I know some sites that offer free subtitles to download.. but they never sync with the audio and I have to do a lot of work to correct the timing.. so do you know any good sites?
