Problem with the WiFi on my LG C4

Hey so I just got an LG C4 a couple of days ago and the wifi just seems to be really bad and I'm wondering if there's anything I could do to fix it!

I can't watch anything in 1440p or 4k because it lags too much. My PC which is also on wifi (and sits right beside the TV) can watch them without a problem.

I have Bell fibe 500 (500 mbs upload/download)

I'm the only person in my appartment

I just put a pcie wifi card (wifi 6) in my pc (which sits right beside the tv) and get 161mbps download and 183mbps and no problem watching 4k vids.

Meanwhile when I'm on youtube on the C4 and look at the stats it says my connection speed is 4000kbps which is

In my modem I can split 2.4ghz and 5ghz signals and distribute among devices to avoid channel interference. TV wifi can use 5ghz and everything else can use 2.4ghz. Or otherwise I suggest check modem admin settings and try to prioritise connection for TV. Or may be just test with different modem if possible.
