Is Mac torrent download dot net a legit website?

It looks kinda sketchy. Has anyone ever tried it?

It is, I've been using it for 8 years. Just make sure you have an ad blocker adblocker, as instructed on the site, I never achieved to get through them to get the password no matter what I did (like editing the source).

To make it so difficult (impossible) to reach a torrent in order to distribute ads in such outrageous way is so unproductive that I doubt it even distribute legit torrents.
