How do people get their windows activated these days?

Question

i think the kmspico thing is not working anymore and ive been kinda out of the loop with a preinstalled windows i have on my laptop, do people simply buy windows keys now? like even in the 3rd world?

Massgravel. The ONLY way you should consider activating Windows or Office.

Get your flavor of Windows/Office from here (if needed):
https://massgrave.dev/genuine-installation-media.html

Activate with this:

I didn't. Stupid thing wanted me to activate again after getting a new CPU and I thought fuck that, Windows is not worth paying for. Am I missing out on something by not having activated it?

Edit: Another comment inadvertently reminded me that it was a new motherboard and CPU I got, not only a new CPU.

CMD, Microsoft has OEM keys for different versions of Windows. Maybe it's an old method, but it works for me. (W11 LTSC)

type this command in your powershell
irm massgrave.dev/get | iex
then explore on your own, navigate by typing numbers
