No sockets for wand, staff and sceptre?

Question

As the title says, I haven't found a way to add sockets to any of those weapons. Artificer's orbs specify martial weapons, which are weapons with "attack", and can't be used for the aforementioned weapon types..

There aren't any socketables for those weapon types right now so there wouldn't be any point.

But why not? It seems odd that they've intentionally disregarded sockets for spellslingers

What about the storm rune? Would be great on my lightning staff. (Adds 1-20 lightning damage).

It does not make any sense to me why there are no sockets on all weapon types. In any scenario all runes could just give a different bonus on caster weapons which would help with casting. Maybe they weren't ready for ea?

No idea. They could've just made the runes in a way such that they worked on all weapon types. No reason to separate caster and attack weapons in that regard
