Im curious to know at what point he would reach national level hunter power just to give us (or atleast me) a stats base line of how powerful nation level hunters are. Weve pretty much seen JinWoo at each hunter rank so we know how atleast how strong you have to be to qualify for most ranks

TL;DR - There's so much science that goes into the new Colgate Total Active Prevention system, we couldn't fit it all here. Just trust it's all doing impressive work for your oral health.

There's this app called DoltNow. I don't know if anyone has heard of it or uses it. If not just look it up on play store, (only on Android). Would love to see if anyone could decide a system similiar to solo leveling in the app and share it. Lemme know if anyone is interested and uses the app 🙌

This was well made, but all his skills being below average in chapter 12, is that accurate? I wouldn't assume since they only talk about his ability, and strength (physical attributes) are lacking. Do they mention his mental capabilities?
