Which classes does the pet actually attack with you? (No not the loot pets..) in 2023?

Question

I know the tamer - witch - wizard have "fighting" pets but have there been any added to that list since about a year ago? I know the game has had a bit of an overhaul like 6 months ago or so. Any and all help would be appreciated as I enjoy classes such as necromancer, beastlord (from everquest), and other pet classes in everquest.
