I think the whole schnapps system is dumb personally the fact you get drunk everytime you save is really annoying too. To the point where I rather just exit save because it's find it easier and surprisingly more convenient. The game would do well to just have normal saves cuz I'm basically doing that anyways everytime I exit save

Yea save and exit. It doesn't delete the save when you load it. The normal way to save is to make/find/buy schnapps and you save when you drink it. Also sleeping in a bed you own saves.

Wait then why wouldn't anyone just always use the save & exit method? Aren't you saying that it's literally a way to save without having to consume a savior schnapp?

You use schnapps to save but honestly you can totally abuse the save and exit feature. The game's pretty fast to load up so it's not a big inconvenience to go to the main menu and back.

you can save when you have a saviour schnapps potion in your inventory. it consumes one schnapps per save,

They really need to change the Save System and what I mean by that is when you save it gives you a choice to save over whichever save you want to override, I hate that when you save it creates a "New" save which is helpful but when you have over 60saves it gets abut annoying.

I ended up just closing the game and going to bed. Way to put players off your game.
